Return Of The Nursery

Last Saturday (4th February) saw the return of the Nursery and it was heartening to see such good numbers out and about. More action again tomorrow morning from 9.30 with the usual reminder about parking and yellow boxes. A reminder also that new recruits born between 2010 and 2012 are especially welcome to join in the fun and games.

The coffee dock will also be open from 9.30am where our team will be serving a range of coffees, tea and treats....and as always with a smile.

Club Shops Open

Both shops open tomorrow, Saturday 10th February. Hurley shop open 9-12 while Club shop opens from 9-1pm.

Na Fianna's Dubs

Dublin's footballers had a great start to their National League title defence with last Sunday's win against Cavan in a carnival like atmosphere in Breffni Park. Na Fianna's Conor McHugh was part of the win and we wish him Jonny Cooper and the lads the best for the season and for tomorrow night's game against Tyrone at 7pm. The hurlers start their campaign in tomorrow night's double header in Croke Park when they take on Tipperary at 5pm. Good luck to Shane Barrett and Donal Burke and the rest of the Dublin panel.

No Senior Ladies in action this weekend as both codes prepare for next weekend's away trips to Cork. Here's hoping that Dublin's footballers including Leah Caffrey stick to their winning ways on 19th in Cork. Dublin's Camogie panel including Eve O'Brien, Arlene Cushen, Niamh Rock and Zoe O'Donoghue start their League campaign in Cork on 18th February.

GAA National Club Draw

The National Club Draw has become a significant fundraiser for Na Fianna over the past two years raising over €32,000 for the club in that period of time. Two years ago, Na Fianna was the highest selling club in the country with 1,647 tickets sold. Last year, we again sold in the region of 1,600 tickets which represented the second highest figure nationally and the highest selling club in the province of Leinster. For this achievement, the club was awarded an additional €1,000 by the GAA which the Executive Committee decided to raffle among those club members who had supported the draw. The Sellers' Draw of €1,000 was shared in 2016 between proud club sellers Vinny Caffrey (€500), Paul Kehoe (€300) and Gail Malone (€200).

This year it has again been decided to hold a Members' Raffle for €1,000 for those club members who support the 2017 draw. This raffle will be held on St Patrick's Day.

With the closing date only a week or so away, tickets are selling fast. If you want to support the club in purchasing a ticket or two, please contact Colum Cronin at 087 6550422. A full list of the impressive range of prizes is available at the following link.

High Praise For Tomás

Dublin Senior Football manager Jim Gavin paid tribute to Tomás Brady who this week announced he was stepping away from intercounty football owing to work commitments.

“Tomás won’t be with us this year for work and personal reasons,” said Jim. “Tomás has had a stellar career with us and when he reflects on the trophies and medals that he’s won, he and his family will be very proud.

“We’ll certainly miss him. He’s a real leader of that group. When Tomás Brady spoke, players always listened. He’s a good character and the club are lucky to have him – and any organisation he works for.”

Members’ Subscriptions

Thank you to all members who have paid their subs to date. Subscriptions for 2017 are due and payable since the AGM. Details of subscription rates and methods of payment are on the Club website <http://www.clgnafianna.com/membership/> . Subscriptions can be paid on Saturdays in the Club or at the office during normal opening hours (9.30am to 1pm Mon – Fri).

Handball News

Congratulations to Conor Maxwell on winning last Saturday's over 40 singles Leinster Final (40x20) with a score of 21-19, 21-18. This adds to Conor's impressive tally of Leinster and All-Ireland 60x30 titles which he won late last year.

Hard luck to Meadhbh Ni Dhalaigh on losing out in last Wednesday's Leinster Junior 40x20 Singles Final against Kildare's Janah Dagger. Dagger was the competition's favourite so Meadhbh was up against it from the start but did very well reaching the Final through a tough field of players.

Four In A Row For St Aidans CBS

Congratulations to St Aidans CBS who this week won their fourth consecutive Dublin Schools Junior A football Championship title beating Colaiste Eoin in the final with a scoreline of 3-10 to 1-11. The St Aidans panel included strong Na Fianna representation including those pictured above. L/r Shane O'Leary, Kevin O'Sullivan, Adam Moran, Keith Doran, Eoin Flaherty and James Byrne. Missing from photo are Cillian Hardiman and Tom Gleeson.
