

Na Fianna Nuacht

Championship Sunday

Sunday will be a very busy day for Na Fianna on the Championship front with our Senior Camogie team in County Final against St Vincents in Abbotstown at 3.30pm and our Senior 2 Footballers in semi-final against Thomas Davis in O'Toole Park at 1.45pm. Both teams are hoping for huge Na Fianna crowd to roar them on.

A potential clash of fixtures was thankfully averted during the week when the Senior 2's agreed with Thomas Davis, and with the approval of CCC, to move their vital county semi-final forward to a 1.45pm throw in. This will allow our support to travel straight from O'Toole Park to Abbotstown in time for the Camogie Final throw in. In a similar show of cooperation, the Senior Camogie management team, with the support of Brendan Cooper and the Dublin Camogie Board, agreed to move their game out to 3.30pm to also facilitate those travelling from the lads' semi-final. ...So now you've no excuse, get out and support both teams!

Senior Camogie Team Looking For Support

Na Fianna's Senior Camogie team play in Sunday's Senior Camogie Championship final, a feat not achieved since 1995 and it's great to be back. Camogie has gone through a very strong revival in Na Fianna in recent times with playing numbers at all levels increasing year on year. This was a ground breaking year for Na Fianna as the Club made history by fielding four adult teams in Championship. One would have to go back to the days of twelve a-side Camogie to find a time when Na Fianna last fielded four competitive adult teams.

Sunday's Senior squad and their success in getting to Championship final is a tribute to this unique set of players who have played together and played for each other over the last while. A strong mix of younger players at the start of their Senior careers have combined very well with the squad's established players with the result that everyone continues to learn from each other and to benefit from the extraordinary bond that has developed within this special group.

Huge credit and thanks goes to the Senior Management team of David Dunning, David Hughes, Sandra Tarr, Fiachra Foran and Austin Rock who have worked tirelessly with this group of players and as a result of careful planning and training have successfully brought them to Sunday's Dublin Senior Championship Final.

All in Na Fianna wish the Ladies and the management team the very best of luck and the Ladies are hoping for a big Na Fianna crowd in Abbotsdown at 3.30pm on Sunday to roar them on.

Senior 2 Footballers in Championship Semis

Our Senior 2 footballers beat Ballyboughal in the Intermediate Championship quarter-final over a week ago and will be playing in the semi final this Sunday at 1.45pm in O'Toole Park against Thomas Davis. Top performers against Ballyboughal were Ciaran Hoolihan (5 points from play), Mark Cooper and Jamie Ward with Brian Downes bagging our only goal.

Ballyboughal got two goals against the run of play but Na Fianna were always in control of the game and won by six points in the end.

Training has gone well since, and Na Fianna hope to be ready for the tough challenge that Thomas Davis will provide. If they beat Thomas Davis they will face the winners of St Judes and Kilmacud Crokes who play in the other semi final. Best of luck to the lads who are hoping that there will be large Na Fianna support in O'Toole Park on Sunday.

AFL5's Playoff

Na Fianna's AFL5 team have reached the play offs for promotion from AFL5 having finished second in the league. The team has enjoyed a successful season to date reaching the Conlon Cup final although losing it to Ballyboden by 2 points and reaching the quarter final of the Championship but losing to Ballymun by a point. Our focus all year has been to get promoted to AFL4 and Sunday's semi final against Templeogue represents a tough challenge. We beat them in the league but we expect a tough game on Sunday and are asking for plenty of support. Game is on at 12 noon in Mobhi Rd after the Minor Football championship game.

The team is our third adult football team and has a mix of young and old (mid 30s !!).It would be a great achievement for the Club to have three teams in the top four divisions of the Adult Football league and we're just two more wins away from achieving this ambition.

Inter Hurlers In League Final

Best of luck to our Intermediate Hurlers who play League final against Fingallians in Lawless Park on Saturday at 5pm. Pictured above with Inter Hurler reps is team sponsor Michael Hedigan from the Brian Boru, Crossguns Bridge.

Na Fianna's First Hurling All-Star

Congratulations to Sean Currie on his Electric Ireland GAA Minor Star Award which was presented to him last weekend. Voted by a panel of GAA legends which included Oisín McConville, Andy McEntee, Donal O'Gusack and Mattie Kenny, Sean was presented with his award at the inaugural annual Electric Ireland Minor Star Awards in Croke Park last Sunday.

Sean's award is Na Fianna's first Hurling All-Star.

Ladies bring back All Ireland Gold

Congrats to Na Fianna's Meadhbh Ni Dhalaiigh and Lisa Mc Kenna who won the All-Ireland 60x30 Doubles title in Kilfane against Limerick last weekend, winning 21-5, 21-0. The girls now hold both 40x20 and 60x30 titles.

Na Fianna Nuacht

.....and finally

A lovely story with a happy ending from Jennifer O'Dea and her son Luke Hanly

We were down at the Dublin Ladies Homecoming in the club 10 days ago. My son - Luke Hanly 05 boys - found a sum of money on the driveway after the bus had gone by. He told us when we got home and I contacted the club the next day. I got a call a few days later and it turns out the money belonged to Carla Rowe one of the Jackies! It had fallen from her pocket when she was on the bus. She was delighted to get her money back and very impressed with Luke's honesty!
