Na Fianna Nuacht

Championship Final Win For Senior7's

Last Monday afternoon was the fourth time this season that Na Fianna and Naomh Barróg had met. A decisive win for Naomh Barróg in the league, an equally decisive win for Na Fianna in the first group match of the championship, and a tense nail-biting draw in last weeks' final, set the scene for this replay.

It was an ideal day for camogie in Parnell's GAA, and both teams played their part in ensuring this was one of the games of the season.

Na Fianna started brightly, and led by two points to nil at the end of the first quarter. Naomh Barróg rallied to register 1-2 without reply. We then scored a free just before half time to leave us trailing 1-2 to 0-3 at the break.

The girls were determined not to let this game slip, and came out like women possessed in the second half, totally dominating the exchanges all over the pitch. Scores were still hard to come by, but two goals and a point without reply, left Na Fianna in the driving seat going into the last ten minutes.

This is a good Naomh Barróg side and they fought hard as the clock ticked down. But to the delight of the large Na Fianna support in attendance, we matched them score for score, until the very welcome sound of the final whistle. Full time: Na Fianna 2-6 Naomh Barróg 1-5

Calling All DCU Alumni

Na Fianna and DCU are coming together on Thursday November 16th to celebrate our long standing connection and relationship. DCU's Alumni Affairs office will host an evening in the Mobhi Suite starting at 8pm.

While the night is predominantly geared towards past students, we would also like to invite all those in Na Fianna who may have a connection with DCU, be they current students, current staff, or even retirees from the college. As you will know, St Patrick's College Drumcondra is now part of DCU, so all those who graduated from St Pats are also more than welcome.

So whatever your Na Fianna/DCU connection is, be sure to come along and network with young and old, rekindle old friendships and maybe make some new ones.
