Na Fianna Nuacht

So by now you'll know that the band has been named, the evening's MC is one of our own and a lot of people continue to put in long hours behind the scenes in preparation for the Na Fianna Celebratory Dinner Dance to be held in the Bonnington Hotel on Friday 9th February.

Spring Break, see <http://springbreak80s.com/history/> for more details, will play us into the early hours with a host of hits, past and present and RTE Radio 1's Morning Ireland presenter, and Na Fianna member, Gavin Jennings will take us through the evening's formalities.

The event continues to be a complete sell-out with demand for tickets far outstripping supply. In the event that any additional tickets do become available, this will be communicated to members via the usual channels i.e. email and social media. In the meantime members are asked not to contact Committee members looking for tickets because for now, there are no tickets available.

For those lucky enough to have purchased tickets, a great night is promised as Na Fianna mark the 7 adult Championship winning teams of 2017, as well as the commencement of John Horan's term as Uachtaráin Chumann Lúthchleas Gael. The night will begin with a drinks reception in McGettigan's Bar (in hotel) at 6pm, followed by a three course meal in the Bonnington Hotel's banquet room and as soon as the presentations are over, a live band will take to the stage to get everybody up on the dance floor and as if that wasn't enough, there will be a DJ until late.

Na Fianna are extremely grateful to the Bonnington Hotel/McGettigan's Bar for their support in making what is sure to be a tremendous event possible. Dress code is formal but not black-tie.

Na Fianna Nuacht

A host of sports stars will gather in the O'Mahony Hall in The Helix on Friday 9th March to talk sports and all in aid of Na Fianna. A huge night is promised in this 1,000 seater venue. In addition to honest insights and good banter from the panel, there will also be a raffle for terrific prizes like signed jerseys, weekend away, as well as tickets for the Scotland v Ireland and Rugby match the following day. Tickets will be distributed to the teams this week for sale and will also go on sale via the Helix on Monday at 9am. A book is also being held behind the bar for any ticket requests.

If there are any businesses that are interested in advertising on the night we have opportunities for half page and full page ads in the programme as well as Premium sponsorship. Any enquiries should be directed to Tom Dowd tom.dowd@gam.com 087 2488569 or Paul McCarville paul.mccarville02@gmail.com 087 283 5005.

LOOKING TO MAKE SOME CHANGES IN 2018?

OPERATION TRANSFORMATION BEGINS IN NA FIANNA GAA CLUB ON MONDAY THE 8TH OF JANUARY

We had another big crowd at last Monday night's Na Fianna's Operation Transformation. Crowds are getting bigger and bigger and maybe, just maybe it's all about the tea and chat in the bar afterwards....it's probably too early to say.

Now heading for its fifth week, Na Fianna's Operation Transformation, an initiative of the club's newly established Health and Wellbeing group, continues again next Monday night at 7pm. So why not join us next Monday night at 7pm and bring your family, your neighbours and friends. And if you've missed the first few nights...it really doesn't matter. All welcome, all ages, fáilte roimh chách!

Na Fianna Nuacht

.....and finally

The Na Fianna Nursery returns this Saturday at 9.30am. The Coffee Cabin ladies also return on Saturday morning serving teas and coffees with a smile to help ease everybody gently back into their Saturday morning routines. If you absolutely have to drive on Saturday morning, please drive carefully as the club will be busy with the first morning back and please, please park responsibly and think of others. Illegally parked cars, i.e. cars parked on double yellow lines and in yellow boxes will be clamped.

Comhbhrón

Sincere sympathies of the Club are offered to the O'Donoghue family on Patricia's sad passing earlier this week in hospital in Lanzarote. She will be sorely missed by her heartbroken husband Donal, her daughters Siobhán, Deirdre, Fiona and Róisín and her large circle of Na Fianna friends. Funeral arrangements later.

Sympathies of the Club are also extended to the Moylan and Behan families on the recent passing of Rory Moylan, St Canice's Road, Father of Dara, Father-in-law of juvenile mentor Michael Behan and Grandfather of Callum Behan (Under 11 boys).

Ar dheis Dé go raibh a n-anamnacha.

Fógra Tabachtach

The objective of Na Fianna Nuacht is to communicate as much club activity as possible however it is important to note that all items for inclusion in either Club Notes or Na Fianna Nuacht are reported to news@clgnafianna.ie or texted to 087 9250697 by Sunday evening. With a growing membership of almost 3,000 and over 100 teams now competing it is difficult to ensure all club activity is reported upon – Do not assume that your team's activity is already known to Na Fianna Nuacht or that someone else has reported it. When errors or omissions occur it is the policy of Na Fianna Nuacht to correct these in subsequent issues when they are reported to news@clgnafianna.ie
