Na Fianna Nuacht

First Hurling Blitz For Our 2010 Boys

The U8 boys group from Na Fianna played their first ever hurling blitz this weekend, with a group in Mobhi Road, and two groups away, in Castleknock GAA's ground in Somerton Park, and St. Peregrines GAA club on Blakestown Road.

We experienced a massive turnout, with 65-70 boys taking a full part in proceedings. The boys acquitted themselves admirably in all locations, with hurling played with great skill, and fantastic sportsmanship on display by all teams.

Of note especially was this was the boys first matches where they could rise and strike the sliotar from the hand. As with the modern game of hurling, this resulted in groups of 4-6 boys from all teams forming rucks around the sliotar, working hard to be the one to get the sliotar up!

All teams took advantage of refreshments provided, and these were sorely needed due to the high energy levels! Special thanks must go to our visiting clubs, Castleknock GAA and Erins Isle GAA clubs, and also clubs hosting our away groups, Castleknock GAA and St. Peregrines GAA clubs.
